PulteGroup Named a Best Workplace for Women

ATLANTA, September 18, 2020 – PulteGroup, Inc. (NYSE: PHM) announced today its recognition as one of the 2020 Best Workplaces for Women™ by Fortune and Great Place to Work®.

“We are honored to be named among the Best Workplaces for Women,” said PulteGroup Senior Vice President of Human Resources Michelle Hairston. “This recognition reflects PulteGroup’s strong commitment to creating an inclusive and diverse workplace for all, where our employees are inspired and empowered to bring their best to work each day.”

Women represent 43 percent of PulteGroup employees, and 30 percent of leaders from front-line supervisors to C-Level executives.

“It is important for us to celebrate diversity, in all of its forms, that makes us stronger as an organization and business. At PulteGroup, we want to ensure all employees are supported and encouraged to achieve success at a company that brings them pride,” said Hairston.

“Over the last two years, PulteGroup has introduced a collection of insightful interviews with its top-ranking female leaders called Dynamic Women in Leadership. Each installment of the series highlights a recognized leader within the organization, from Division Presidents to members of the Board of Directors, offering a unique perspective on career paths, leadership and wisdom into achieving success.”

To determine the 2020 Best Workplaces for Women, Great Place to Work analyzed anonymous survey feedback representing more than 4.9 million U.S. employees at Great Place to Work-Certified™ Companies. Great Place to Work is the global authority on workplace culture, employee experience and the leadership behaviors proven to deliver market-leading revenue and increased innovation. Powered by Great Place to Work’s rigorous, data-driven ‘For All’ methodology, this distinction is earned through validated feedback from employees.
