Hunterdon Creekside Named One of Best New Active Adult Communities for 2018

FLEMINGTON, N.J. – Jan. 23, 2019 – Hunterdon Creekside, a Pulte Homes active adult community, is celebrating its one-year anniversary by being named one of the 10 Best New 55+ Communities of 2018 by 55places.com. The communities featured on the list opened in 2018 and were chosen based on amenities, location, lifestyle, resident feedback and other data collected and analyzed by 55places.com, an online resource that compares active adult communities throughout the United States.

“As the first active adult community operating under the Pulte Homes name in New Jersey, we are excited to top off a successful opening year with this national recognition,” said John Evans, Northeast Corridor division president for PulteGroup. “Hunterdon Creekside serves the diverse interests of today’s baby boomers by offering the perfect combination of an active lifestyle, quality-crafted home designs, and an intimate setting that is convenient to major cities.”

Pulte Homes-branded active adult communities reflect a corporate strategy of developing smaller, age-restricted communities that are located closer to city centers and appeal to still-working boomers and retirees alike. As boomers become empty-nesters, they often seek a new home that better meets their needs in a community that offers instant connectivity with people at the same life stage. Many choose to stay in the same geographic area, so they can maintain connections to family, friends and trusted healthcare providers.

With over 50 years of experience serving active adults through its Del Webb brand, PulteGroup is expanding its offering with the development of more intimate, 55+ communities like Hunterdon Creekside. Located in Raritan Township between New York and Philadelphia, Hunterdon Creekside is close to major commuting routes, abundant shopping and dining, the Premium Outlets at Liberty Village, golf, and entertainment and medical facilities.

The gated community offers 246 single family homes and townhomes with first-floor owner’s suites. Featuring the latest in Smart Home technology, the 11 open floor plan layouts, optional lofts and basements give buyers the flexibility to configure their homes to suit their lifestyles. Within the 100-acre community residents can take advantage of a clubhouse with fitness center, outdoor pool, sport courts and walking trails, while also enjoying a variety of clubs and sports leagues.
