PulteGroup Named One of the 2021 Best Workplaces for Women™ for the Second Consecutive Year

The Company Ranks #30 on the List by Great Place to Work® and Fortune

ATLANTA, September 16, 2021 – PulteGroup, Inc. (NYSE: PHM) announced today its recognition as one of the 2021 Best Workplaces for Women™ by Fortune and Great Place to Work®, ranking #30. This is the company’s second year being named to this prestigious list, previously debuting at #68 in 2020.

“We are thrilled to be recognized as a best workplace for women for the second consecutive year. This recognition is especially meaningful because it is based on feedback from our team members,” said PulteGroup Senior Vice President of Human Resources Michelle Hairston. “We are committed to creating an inclusive culture where diversity is celebrated and makes us stronger as an organization.”

The Best Workplaces for Women award is based on an analysis of anonymous survey feedback from more than 5.6 million current U.S. employees, assessing how companies create a great employee experience that cuts across race, gender, age, disability status, and role.

In 2021, PulteGroup also ranked as a 100 Best Companies to Work For® (#75) and a Best Workplace for Millennials™ (#54) by Fortune and Great Place to Work®. In addition, the company was ranked third on PEOPLE’s 100 Companies that Care® 2021 list.

“These companies have made a commitment to fostering equity in the workplace. With the data about gender inequity in mind, the Best Workplaces for Women braved the task of combatting gender inequity by ensuring their women employees feel safe, heard, challenged and valued,” says Michael C. Bush, CEO of Great Place to Work®.
