PulteGroup's Built to Honor Program Named 2020 Hearthstone Award Recipient

Founded in 2013, the company-wide program provides mortgage-free homes to deserving wounded veterans across the country

ATLANTA, May 18, 2020 – Today PulteGroup announced that its Built to Honor® program was named a 2020 Hearthstone Award Winner. This is the second time the program has been recognized by Hearthstone after receiving a donation in 2018.

“Built to Honor represents the epitome of our organization’s values and purpose: to build incredible places where people can live their dreams,” said PulteGroup President and CEO Ryan Marshall. “It is an honor to have the opportunity to thank our nation’s heroes for their service and welcome them home.”

Launched in 2013, the program builds brand-new mortgage-free homes for deserving veterans and their families as they transition out of the military and into the next phase of their lives. To date, Built to Honor has delivered 57 homes worth over $20 million to servicemen and women with the support of its dedicated suppliers and contractor partners.

Recognized for its leadership and commitment to supporting our nation’s veterans, Hearthstone will present the program with a grant as part of this year’s award.

“We are very grateful to Hearthstone for its ongoing support of our Built to Honor program. With this generous donation, we look forward to continuing to help veterans realize the American dream of homeownership,” said Marshall.
