The Detroit Free Press Names PulteGroup’s Michigan Division a 2020 Top Workplace

DETROIT, Dec. 9, 2020 – National homebuilder PulteGroup, Inc. (NYSE: PHM) announced today its recognition as a 2020 Top Workplace by the Detroit Free Press. This is the third year its Michigan division has received this honor.

“The Top Workplace recognition is a testament to the strong culture we have built and our commitment to creating an inclusive workplace where all employees can thrive,” said Kevin Christofferson, Michigan Division President for PulteGroup. “It is an honor to receive this accolade again, especially during this unprecedented year, and I want to thank our talented team for their hard work and dedication.”

The list is based solely on employee feedback gathered through a third-party survey administered by employee engagement technology partner Energage, LLC. The anonymous survey uniquely measures 15 drivers of engaged cultures that are critical to the success of any organization, including alignment, execution and connection.

“In times of great change, it is more important than ever to maintain a connection among employees,” said Eric Rubino, Energage CEO. “When you give your employees a voice, you come together to navigate challenges and shape your path forward based on real-time insights into what works best for your organization. The Top Workplaces program can be that positive outcome your company can rally around in the coming months to celebrate leadership and the importance of maintaining an employee-focused culture, even during challenging times.”
